Immediate Withdrawals: ☐ (Students did not register and does not need signatures above.)

A student may withdraw from the university when circumstances beyond the student's control make it impossible for him or her to complete their coursework for the semester. A student wishing to withdraw from the university must complete the relevant section of the Institutional Withdrawal Form, obtain the school officials' signatures, and submit the completed form to the Registrar's Office. If a student fails to attend for a period of 14 consecutive calendar days of classes for which he or she is registered in a given semester or term, the university will make a determination as to whether the student intends to return to classes or should be administratively withdrawn from his or her program of study. The student will receive a grade of "W" if he or she withdraws between the second and tenth week of the semester for 15-week courses, between the second and fourth week of the session for 7-week courses. A student who does not withdraw from the university before the deadline will receive a failing grade or a letter grade based upon his/her performance in the course. The institutional refund policy is applied to determine if the institution is required to provide a refund to the student. Students who fail to register by the end of add/drop period are automatically considered officially withdrawn from the University.

Cancellation & Refund Policy:

A student may elect to cancel the Enrollment Agreement with no financial penalty at any point prior to the start of the semester or the end of the add/drop period. Any cancellation that takes place after the add/drop period will follow the university's stated Cancellation and Refund Policy.

Applicants, who have not visited the school prior to enrollment, will have the opportunity to cancel their enrollment without penalty within three business days following the regular orientation procedures and/or a tour of the facility to include inspection of the equipment used to provide training and services. Such individuals shall be entitled to a full tuition refund.

If a student elects to drop one or more courses or withdraw from the university, the following refund schedule will be used to determine any outstanding financial obligation for which the student may be responsible:

Last Date of Attendance	Tuition Refund Amount*
Up to the last day of add/drop period	100% of the semester tuition
After the add/drop and through 25% of the semester	75% of the semester tuition
Through 50% of the semester	50% of the semester tuition
Through 75% of the semester	25% of the semester tuition
After 75% of the semester	No refund will be issued

* Excludes all fees

The Student Accounts Office shall review student accounts periodically and contact students with an overpayment. Students may decide to keep the overpayment balance to their account or request a refund by a credit/debit card or a wire transfer by submitting a Refund Request Form. Any bank transaction fees will be deducted from the total. Students may download the form on the university website or obtain a hard copy from the Student Accounts Office. Students, who do not submit the Refund Request Form to the Student Accounts Office upon the overpayment notification, will receive the tuition deposit credit in the same manner as it was paid to The New Lines Institute (credit card payment, bank wire transaction, or check). If the Student Accounts Office is unable to process the payment, the New Lines Institute will mail a refund check to the student's attention at the most recent address listed in the Student Portal. Please note that the New Lines Institute will only issue tuition refunds to the organization or person who made the original payment.

All tuition refunds will be made within a period of 45 calendar days following the official withdrawal date. Student fees (application fee, postage fee, student service fee, etc.) and service charges rendered during the refund process are not refundable.

It is the University's policy to hold tuition deposits refundable for one year after the application date. After lapsing of the one-year period, these deposits become non-refundable.

The official withdrawal date, for the purpose of a refund calculation, will be the last date on which the student was recorded present in attendance for a class. If no payment was made, or if the student was participating in a payment plan and the payments are insufficient to cover the student's obligations according to the schedule above, the university will send the student a bill for the difference.

If a student fails to pay the full amount as scheduled, FXUA is authorized to take the following actions until the outstanding balance is paid in full:

1. Apply financial penalties including late fees.
2. Place a financial hold on the student's account and limit the access to Student Portal and Canvas.
3. Withhold the release of the student's academic records or any information based upon or included in the records.
4. Withhold the issue of the student's transcripts.

To initiate the institutional withdrawal process, the student may submit an Institutional Withdrawal Form to Fairfax University of America. Students may download the form from our website or obtain a hard copy from the Registrar's Office or the Office of International Student Services. If a student does not resume attendance at the university on/or before the end of approved LOA, the student will be considered withdrawn from the institution. The date that the LOA was approved should be considered the last date of attendance for refund purpose.

The details about this policy can be found in the university catalog and at the university web sites.
